

Exhibition on view

August 23 – October 27, 2007

Judith and Walter Hunt Gallery, Mezzanine Gallery
Center for Architecture, New York

The Future of the Architecture Profession in London. The exhibition features young firms whose work shows invention and promise. New Practices London is organized by the AIA New York Chapter's Center for Architecture in collaboration with The Architecture Foundation in London. The Architecture Foundation provides a platform for dialogue between the most talented new architects in London through their Summer Nights and Winter Nights lecture series. Six of these practices, all of which were founded since 2000, are invited to participate in the exhibition:

6a Architects

AOC

Carmody Groarke

DRDH Architects

Ullmayer Sylvester

Witherford Watson Mann

The exhibition will be accompanied by a series of programs organized by the AIA New York Chapter in collaboration with AIA New York Chapter's New Practices Roundtable committee, the AIA New York Chapter's International Committee, the Center for Architecture Foundation, RIBA USA and the Architects Newspaper. The programming will take place while the exhibition is on view.

The New Practices series was launched in 2006 focusing on emerging practices in New York City. In 2007, the Center for Architecture decided to kick off our international exchange by highlighting the London perspective.

Related programming (tbc)

Wednesday, August 22

Presentations by London firms, moderated by New York practices

Thursday, August 23

Opening Party with London DJ

Thursday, August 23

New York office tours for London firms

FamilyDay@TheCenter

Organized by the Center for Architecture Foundation